

Cover Letter — Purpose, Structure, Tone

Lesson Objectives

- Explain what a cover letter is and when to use it.
- Find employer needs in a job ad and select matching keywords.
- Label the 5 parts: Opening • Evidence 1 • Evidence 2 • Fit & Goodwill • Close.
- Draft each part using action + result/number.
- Edit for a polite, inclusive tone and 200–250 words.

Time to Climb

Time To Climb

Three points about a cover letter

Three points to remember while writing a cover letter

- Purpose
- Audience
- When to use

Three points about a cover letter

Purpose

- Why are you writing this letter?
 - Connect your skills/results to the employer's needs.
 - Show goodwill and ask for the next step.

Three points about a cover letter

Audience

- Who is going to read your letter?
 - Usually HR or a hiring manager.
 - Keep tone professional, clear, and welcoming.

Three points about a cover letter

When used

- Always attach with your CV (companion piece).
- For jobs that ask for one—or where you can add value beyond your CV.
- Especially important in customer-facing or entry-level roles to show communication skills.

Multiple Choice

Which opening sounds clearer and more professional to start a cover letter?

- ☐ I'm applying for the Administrative Assistant position at Emirates Group. With experience in scheduling, customer service, and managing documents, I believe I can contribute positively to your team.
- ☐ Hello, I want job I worked before and I can do many things. Please consider me.

Why is the following opening a better start for a cover letter? Choose all options that apply. "I am applying for the Administrative Assistant position at Emirates Group. With experience in scheduling, customer service, and managing documents, I believe I can contribute positively to your team."

- ☐ It has a clear purpose.
- ☐ It has polite tone.
- ☐ It is relevant.
- ☐ It shows confidence without exaggeration

The 5-Sentence Plan

1. Opening → State the position and your purpose clearly.
2. Evidence 1 → Show one skill with a real example.
3. Evidence 2 → Add a second example to strengthen your case.
4. Fit & Goodwill → Explain how you match the employer's needs and show positive attitude.
5. Close → Thank them and express readiness to discuss more.

Fill in the Blanks

reviewing

15%.

confident

discuss

ADNOC.

forward

contribute

managed

applying

internship,

skills

coordinated

supported

Mini Demo Paragraph (Model)

I am _____ for the Marketing Assistant position at _____. During my _____ I _____ social media updates and increased engagement by _____. I also _____ weekly team meetings and prepared reports that _____ fast decision making. These experiences make me _____ that I can _____ to your communication goals. Thank you for _____ my application, and I look _____ to the opportunity to _____ my _____ further.

Draw It

Sentence 1 — Purpose

Imagine you are applying for the job attached. Complete the following sentence with appropriate skills. Write the complete sentence. you may choose words from the following list:

- any job you have
- I need money fast
- clear communication
- helping customers
- easy work only

^drawables_ins

global_submit

Draw It

Sentence 2 — Evidence / Results (Cover Letter)

[illegible]

- Use the ideas from the attached Writing Support Table.
- Select at least 2 ideas relevant to the job you are applying for.
- Write 2-3 complete sentences to show how you qualify for the job.

Example: In my project/role, I _____, which resulted in _____."

^drawables_ins

Draw It

Sentence 3 — Goodwill

“Complete the following prompts that show you fit the team values and express goodwill. Use ‘I’d be glad to contribute to...’”

- “... a warm and supportive team environment.”
- “... join if the salary is high.”
- “... friendly and clear communication with customers.”
- “... work as long as it's not too hard.”
- “... contribute to your goal of providing helpful customer support.”

^drawables_ins

global_submit

Draw It

Sentence 3 — Closing

Imagine you are applying for the job attached. Complete the following sentence with appropriate skills. Write the complete sentence. you may choose words from the following list:

- working with your team
- not answering customers
- learning new skills
- getting salary quickly
- supporting your customers

^drawables_ins

global_submit

Assignment

- Previously you have created a CV for this job.
- Write a Cover Letter to support your CV.
- Do not repeat information from the CV.
- Think of relevant experience and skills to show why you are suitable for the job.

Upload your Cover letter to BBL.

