Parts of a memo - 1

Memos are short and to the point, but they still follow a structured format for clarity.

1. The heading should include the following format:

- To — the audience for the memo, such as All Employees or a department name
- From — your name and job title
- Date — the memo distribution date
- Subject — the topic of the memo

The subject line should be as specific as possible. For instance, instead of “Personnel Update,” change to “Promotion of Steve Davis, VP of Marketing.”

- Brief opening to give context
- Explains the memo's purpose
- Answers "Why am I getting this?" immediately
